EMBRACE — A Gentle Reminder for Our Prime Years

By Gustavo Marchini

As we journey through life, we gather wisdom, memories, and experiences that shape who we are. But even in our golden years, there's always something new to learn, something new to feel. And perhaps the most powerful thing we can do at this stage is this: embrace.

Embrace what is. Embrace who we've become. Too often, we hear the message to let go—of the past, of regret, of control. And while that has its place, there's something just as important: the ability to let in. Let in kindness. Let in change. Let in connection. Let in joy.

Embracing Aging

Sure, there are aches and adjustments, but there's also freedom—freedom to be more ourselves than we've ever been.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Henry Penas

Over the past three months, Jim Richardson, Alex Meyer, Paul McNamara, and I have learned a lot—especially about a powerful tool called Wild Apricot. It may sound like bourbon, but it's actually an online platform that streamlines many of the tasks we juggle behind the scenes.

If you missed the May Membership Meeting, you missed an excellent presentation by Jim Richardson. He demonstrated how Wild Apricot will save us countless hours managing our website, finances, membership database, and email communications. The website will be the hub, but behind the scenes, our team can now update data and spreadsheets in real time.

ACTIVITIES

To wear our years with pride.

Embracing Each Other

One of the most beautiful parts of being in a group like Prime Gentlemen is the sense of belonging. Whether it's through conversation, laughter, or just being in each other's company—we find comfort in connection.

Embracing the Moment

The most precious time is always now. Whether it's a simple meal, a walk in the sun, a chat with a friend, or a shared memory over coffee—these are the moments to embrace fully.

So, my dear friends, let's remind ourselves: Let's embrace our lives—exactly as they are.

- ♦ Let's embrace our community—with open hearts.
- ♦ Let's embrace each new day—not with fear, but with curiosity.
- ♦ Because even now—especially now—we have so much life left to live, and so much love left to give.

With warmth,
Gustavo Marchini ♦

In other news:

Dick Huitema has stepped down as our one man A/V squad after so many years of providing us with light, sounds and action at our Membership/Potluck meetings. He tackled so many electrical, logistical and audio challenges again and again and always came out on top. He will be replaced by two stouthearted members – John Dool will not only put together the Surfer, but will now prepare the slides, photos and trailers for our meetings and Andrew Langley will be the A/V monitor as he continues to tickle the ivories. ♦

Featured Movie “SEBASTIAN”

Max (Ruaridh Mollica) is a 25-year-old aspiring novelist, living in London and paying his dues working at a literary magazine. Frustrated by his own ambitions and the pressures to succeed, Max begins moonlighting as a sex worker with the pseudonym, Sebastian.

Max, uses his experiences as Sebastian to fuel his stories and his debut novel finally seems within reach. Max increasingly struggles to remain in control of a delicately balanced double-life. Max has to reckon with whether Sebastian is merely a writer’s tool to achieve first-hand authenticity -- or whether something more is at stake.

Movie Short “HEAR MY VOICE”

Mike moved to London hoping to find love and the dream part that would launch his opera career. Four years later, he is stuck – his journal is now his best friend. One night, during yet another hook-up, he sees the

June Hero

By Ken South

Elvis Presley appeared on The Ed Sullivan Show in 1957 for the third and final time, only shown from the waist up! Dwight Eisenhower and Richard Nixon were inaugurated for second terms as President and Vice President of the United States. Around the World in 80 Days won Best Picture. Arkansas Governor Orville Faubus called out the National Guard to prevent the “Little Rock Nine” African American students, from enrolling in the Little Rock Central High School.

Also, on October 16th of 1957, Mr. June was born in Brookline, Massachusetts followed by a younger brother.

Mr. J spent his elementary through high school days in Hingham and Norwell, MA where he graduated from Norwell High in 1975. There he played the French horn and ran track. After HS, he was off to college and attended Grinnell College in Iowa, where he majored in economics, graduating in 1980.

Following college, Mr. J moved to Beacon Hill in Boston with his partner, Ron, who he met at Grinnell, and became a stockbroker, practicing for ten years. During this time, he also attended Babson College and earned an MBA in 1984.

April 19,
2025

Our dear friend Clint Finn passed away on April 19 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. He was lovingly cared for by his life partner of 29 years, Art Donley. Clint built a remarkable career in advertising, working with the Hearst Group for four decades. He spent most of that time with Good Housekeeping, ultimately retiring as the Advertising Production Director.

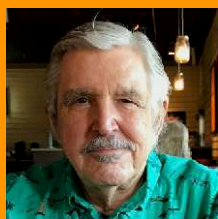

Clint was a deeply sensitive and generous man, cherished by all who knew him. Many would say that some of the best times of their lives were shared with Clint.

Memorial arrangements are currently being planned, and details will be shared via email as soon as they are available.

Please keep Art in your thoughts during this difficult time.

In the early 1990s, Mr. J changed careers because he was more interested in business research. He attended the Simmons College Graduate School of Library and Information Science, earned an MS in Library Science, and joined the Harvard Business School as a research librarian where he served for 32 years until his retirement in 2023. Since 2007, he also served on the faculty of Cambridge College in Boston, where he taught courses on research. During his life in Boston, he attended Old South Church, a United Church of Christ congregation. Mr. J visited South Florida many times over the years, but bought a home here in 2021. He and Michael have been partners for the last nine years and were married in 2022. The "Snow Bird" couple also have homes in Cambridge, and Cape Cod, MA.

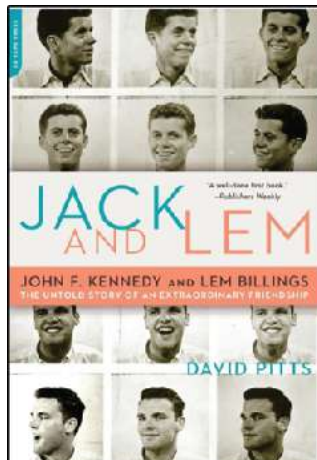

Mr. J came out while attending Grinnell College. A highlight was his marching in the first Gay Pride Parade held in Des Moines, Iowa on an early Saturday morning in June 1979 with about 20 other people. Last year, in 2024, that parade had an estimated attendance of 130,000-150,000. ♦

Book Discussion Group

By Paul McNamara

Jack and Lem, by David Pitts, explores the enduring friendship between John F. Kennedy and Kirk Lemoyne Billings (aka "Lem").

Jack Kennedy and Lem Billings met at Choate and remained friends until the Dallas gunfire that ended Kennedy's life thirty years later. Although Lem was gay, their relationship was evidently always platonic and continued through WWII and after, as Billings pursued a career in advertising while also devoting much energy to advancing Kennedy's political career.

Lem became an adored member of the extended Kennedy clan and loomed large in the lives of the martyred Jack's and Bobby's children. Though Lem never held an official role in the Kennedy administration, his friendship and insight were much valued, so much so that he had his own room at the White House. Billings also became a much-sought-after source, courted by dozens of Kennedy biographers until he died in 1981.

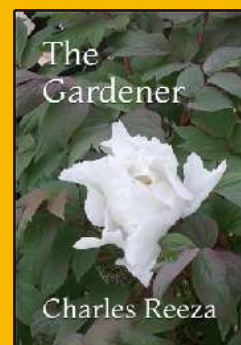

This is the story of Jack and Lem and the climate for gays during the Kennedy era— the story of a great friendship that grew and survived against the odds.

Jack and Lem will be discussed at the next meeting of the Book Discussion Group, to be held on Saturday, June 14 from 11:00 AM to noon at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E Sunrise Blvd. Fort Lauderdale, and simultaneously on Zoom via this link: Book Discussion Group.
